

Mr. James Roosevelt Is Entirely Right in His Prediction, Says W. R. Hearst

If an election is an endorsement of policies, certainly a re-election is a double endorsement of any ruler's program.

There are no two ways about that. If you want Roosevelt's Socialistic policies, you vote for him.

If you do not want them, you do not vote for him.

That is so plain even a blind man could see it. Therefore, let us consider carefully WHAT you are voting for and what you are going to GET if you vote for him.

First, you are going to get an unbalanced budget for another four years.

Roosevelt has never balanced the budget and he never will.

He has always said he would balance the budget, but he has NEVER DONE IT.

HE LIKES to spend the money.

Why should he not like to spend it? It is not his money. It is your money.

He likes to put his friends and supporters and their friends and supporters on the public payroll.

Why should he not like to do it? It is not his payroll. It is your payroll.

He likes to be a big shot. He likes to be a play-boy with your money.

And if you re-elect him he will think you like it, too.

And why should he not think so? Is not that what an endorsement at the polls means?

So, if Mr. Roosevelt is re-elected, the expenses will continue to increase, the national debt will continue to rise, the taxes will continue to grow; and you, the good people who cannot be fooled all the time, but are fooled MOST OF THE TIME, will get it in the neck.

BUT why not? You will have stuck out your neck. You will have asked for it.

What other and further policy of Roosevelt's are you endorsing if you re-elect him?

There is the recognition of Russia.

Mr. Roosevelt recognized Stalin. And, later, Stalin recognized Roosevelt.

The documents have been printed.

Moscow has told all the Communists in America to vote for Roosevelt—the friend of Russia, the comrade of Communism.

Are you surprised at that? Why?

Really, you folks—the good American public—are very guileless.

Can you not see why? If a good American got into the office of President, he might UNDO the recognition of Russia. If he were surely a good American, he would certainly repudiate Russia, which is continually plotting against our welfare. Russia does not want to be repudiated.

RUSSIA wants to continue to proselyte for Communism among the alien elements of the American system; among the awakening Negroes of the north and south; among the unfortunates who—thanks to foreign wars and foreign loans and foreign contaminations—are out of work; among the criminals, who are the only ones who really profit by Communistic revolution; among the chronically discontented of all classes; among the self-sufficient college professors and the egotistic movie stars; among the irresponsible illiterati and the un-intelligentsia of all sects and sexes.

Then Russia wants to borrow more money. Everybody in Europe wants to borrow more money. And they all want to borrow it from America—the only country which is willing to throw its money away.

Then, finally and conclusively, Roosevelt did recognize the bloody dictatorship of Stalin; and one bad turn deserves another.

Then what further policy and proceeding are you endorsing, ladies and gentlemen of the good American public, if you endorse at the polls Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Roosevelt's program and practices?

You are endorsing and insuring further interference in foreign affairs.

MR. ROOSEVELT wanted to get into the League of Nations, but he could not get past the United States Senate.

He tried hard, as you know, to get in by the back door of the League Court. He sent for senators and cajoled them and threatened them.

Thank God, there was enough American manhood in the Senate to resist threats and blandishments.

But Mr. Roosevelt is now forming his own FINANCIAL League of Nations.

It begins with England, France, Italy and the United States.

The motto is: "Join our League and borrow money of America."

Mr. Roosevelt has already loaned millions to France—millions he had no legal right to loan—millions France will, of course, never repay.

Mr. Roosevelt likes to be a big shot abroad, too.

He likes to be a worldwide Uncle Santa Claus.

He likes to be a European high-roller, an international spender.

AND again why not? He is not spending his money. He is spending YOUR money.

You are paying for it in taxes, and Mr. Roosevelt himself has said that taxes are paid in the sweat of EVERYONE'S brow—YOUR brow, gentlemen of the public—and ladies of the public, YOUR brow, too.

And what else, ladies and gentlemen, must you expect if you twice elect and doubly endorse Roosevelt and his policies?

You must expect, and you will surely get, further discarding of the "horse-and-buggy" American Constitution; and further discrediting of the "fox-trail" American system of a people's republic; and further limitation of personal liberty; and further governmental regulation and regimentation; and further interference in everybody's affairs; and further restriction of industry; and further burdens on business; and further consequent prevention of industrial expansion and industrial employment; and more dependence on government, and more dole; and more taxes to support unemployment—the whole vicious circle round and round again.

AND what further Rooseveltian policies are YOU endorsing if you vote to re-elect Roosevelt?

You are endorsing the repudiation of the great American protective policy; and you are repudiating it just as other nations have recognized its value and are adopting it.

You are endorsing the further opening of American markets to cheap foreign-made goods.

You are endorsing the closing of American factories.

You are endorsing the dismissal of American workers to join the ranks of unemployed.

You are endorsing the abandonment of a century-old American policy which has made the United States the richest nation in the world, and the American workman the best paid and best provided for of any in the world.

REMEMBER the following facts, friends and fellow citizens:

No matter what the government says in its NRA and other alphabetical impositions that industry MUST do, there is one thing which industry CANNOT do, and that is pay out in wages money which it has NOT GOT.

The government cannot urge high wages on the one hand, and on the other hand close factories with cheap foreign competition.

But how, say you, can the administration restore the NRA and other impositions which have been decreed unconstitutional by the Supreme Court?

By doing exactly what Mr. Roosevelt intends to do if re-elected and popularly endorsed; namely, change the Constitution and pack the Supreme Court.

There are three justices of the Supreme Court who will retire in the next four years anyway.

How would you like to see Richberg, the revolutionist, Ickes, the Bolshevik, and Frankfurter, the radical, in their places?

IF you vote for Roosevelt, you will surely see a "New Deal" in Supreme Court judges, a "New Deal" in the American Constitution, a "New Deal" in American domestic and international relations, to take the place of American independence abroad and American liberty at home.

These things seem impossible to you in our country, which for so many years has been so happy and so free.

Well, they do not seem impossible to foreign commentators.

The London Mirror says this morning on page fourteen:

"EIGHTEEN MILLION AMERICANS ARE IN RECEIPT OF RELIEF IN ONE FORM OR ANOTHER, AND THESE EIGHTEEN MILLION MEAN SIX MILLION VOTES, AND YOU MAY BE SURE THOSE SIX MILLION VOTES WILL NOT BE CAST FOR LONDON.

"YOU CANNOT BEAT SANTA CLAUS."

THE LONDON MIRROR further says: "IF MR. FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT IS RE-ELECTED, THEN ZOWIE! THERE WILL BE FUN.

"THOSE NINE OLD MEN (WHO CONSTITUTE THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES) WILL BE LOOKING FOR NEW JOBS."

Then continues the London Mirror: "THE SCHEMES THROWN INTO THE WASTE-PAPER BASKET WILL BE PICKED UP, SMOOTHED OUT, AND PUT BACK AGAIN INTO CIRCULATION.

"AND THEN SOME."

This London paper sees more clearly with the perspective of distance than some Americans do close at home.

All of the above the London Mirror predicts, and this London paper is right when it says:

"If Mr. Franklin Delano Roosevelt is re-elected, then zowie! There will be fun."

Fun for England, no doubt, but not for America.

him of being "a Socialist and enemy of big business." He charged it with using its great power to foster monopoly and hamstring small business. He accused it of using public funds to coerce members of campaigns and local officials. He charged it with using relief funds to intimidate voters and terrorize relief workers. He charged it with enacting tax bills as punitive measures against non-conformers and, lastly, accused it of using a congressional investigation in an attempt to crush the Townsend movement, because it opposed the New Deal.

"If we are to preserve our American form of government," said London, "this administration must be defeated." This ultimatum brought an audience of 75,000 in the giant coliseum to its collective feet in a terrific outburst of cheering. So, too, did each specific indictment of the New Deal. And there were boners for the President and his Postmaster General James A. Farley.

London was in fine spirits as he started eastward. He left Los Angeles with Republican leaders declaring his visit had launched a tidal wave of sentiment that would sweep California into the London column on Nov. 3, despite all New Deal claims to the contrary.

He was informed the Townsend followers would vote almost en masse for him, that the Republican party had been revitalized and that constitutional Democrats would desert the New Deal by hundreds of thousands.

His reception was tumultuous. For a half million Californians saw him. He was greeted with enthusiastic cheers on every appearance, although he did draw some boos in down-town Los Angeles. He was hailed as a "puppet of big business" but now accused wrong-doing is no poor that it will not amount a full-fledged investigation.

"They are too often carried on in ignorant disregard of the rights of our citizens and with the methods and manners of our cruelest police courts."

While insisting all investigations are not an abuse of power, the Republican standard-bearer said: "No legal hair splitting can hide the difference between an investigating committee that is trying to get information useful in the framing of laws and an investigating committee that is indulging in a fishing expedition into the private affairs of private citizens—committees that is not to get the crooks and a committee that is out to get the criminals."

Obviously referring to the Black Senate committee, the governor said: "One Congressional investigation, characterized as a fishing expedition, openly and flagrantly violated the constitutional restriction against unreasonable search and seizure."

"THREAT TO LIBERTY" "Great masses of private correspondence were taken."

"Reports state that the papers so seized have been used for purposes having an connection with the alleged subject matter of the investigation."

The severest indictment of President Roosevelt that has been delivered by Gov. London in the presidential race it began with nothing at the outset he was going to talk about a "serious issue—abuse of the power, the integrity, and the threat to our liberty."

The Roosevelt administration re-fused against extraordinary powers obtained at it at the outset of its tenure, Governor London said, continuing:

"Instead, it asked for more. It seemed obsessed with the idea that it had a mandate to direct and control American business, American agriculture and American life. Hence a few of the things they tried to do.

"They tried to tell our farmers

CURLEY AND CROWDS CHEER HIS TOUR INTO BAY STATE

Heard on through Bridgewater, Hingham, Barnstable, Quincy and Milton.

The huge crowds and the large number of machines following the President, and the cheering from the places and out of the cars, all made for what was at times an extremely picturesque spectacle.

Conditions were so hot at some places that many cars were unable to get into the Presidential party.

At Fall River, President Roosevelt said little to the vast throng, but secretary Louis Matthews Howe, who said last spring: "I don't want any more of this kind of thing," said today: "I don't want any more of this kind of thing."

CHOWS ARE PRESIDENT

Large crowds, considering that it was an invasion of unpopulated New England territory, followed all along the way. Political observers said that down, however, to the fact that the great mass of the people of the United States who are not in the immediate vicinity of the President, are not in the immediate vicinity of the President.

At Fall River, President Roosevelt said little to the vast throng, but secretary Louis Matthews Howe, who said last spring: "I don't want any more of this kind of thing," said today: "I don't want any more of this kind of thing."

PROSPERITY RETURNS

President Roosevelt, following the President's tour, said that the prosperity of the United States is back.

"Because it was a modern machine it needed money to drive it," he said, "and it got it going and kept it going." "I don't want any more of this kind of thing," he said, "I don't want any more of this kind of thing."

GREETED BY CURLEY

Registration, one of the most serious, seemed against the President's administration, was also against the President's administration.

Don't Poison Baby

Through Your Constipation

Nursing mothers must avoid constipation. How bowel movements allow poisons to form and be absorbed by the blood. This means tainted milk for baby.

Mothers are the best friends of Nujol. When precious new lives are at stake they use and give their babies Nujol—the remedy medical authorities prescribe because it is so safe, so gentle, and so natural in its action.

Constipation is dangerous for every baby. Nujol is safe for everybody. It does not irritate the stomach and is not absorbed by the body.

Nujol makes up for deficiency of natural lubricant in the intestines. It softens the waste matter and thus permits thorough and regular bowel movements without straining.

Just try Nujol regularly for the next month and see if you don't feel better than you ever suspected you could.

Ask your druggist for Nujol and insist on the genuine.

What Landon Stands For: Decent Wages and Jobs

GOVERNOR LANDON does not believe a self-respecting man who has been reduced to poverty by circumstances beyond his control is happy or relief.

He has no illusions about the plight of a man who is hungry, and who has a hungry wife and hungry children waiting for him at home.

He knows the first need of people in this plight is relief, no matter how it hurts their pride to take it.

Governor Landon will see that such people get relief. No American citizen will plead in vain for food, clothing or shelter if he is President.

But Mr. Landon does not believe the government has discharged its obligation to the distressed by feeding them on the bread of charity.

"There is no future on relief," he said.

He conceives the duty of government to be the giving of every possible assistance to employing industries, to lift the necessity of relief from the lives of the people.

A job in which a man may use the skill or talent he is best qualified to use, and which will pay him a wage sufficient to give his family the benefits of the American standard of living—this is the only source of happiness.

McNAIR WARNS AGAINST NRA REVIVAL

Business recovery in the United States dates from the death of the National Recovery Act, industrial leaders of the state were told today by Malcolm P. McNair, director of manufacturing and research of the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration.

He warned against pending legislation that would revive NRA in its former or modified form.

Addressing members of the Associated Industries of Massachusetts at their 21st annual convention in the Cooper Plaza hotel, Director McNair said:

"The business man had not got over his relief at the destruction of the NRA and lingering disquiet about the possibility of its resurrection when that menacing combination of uncertainty and absurdity, the Robinson-Patman act, appeared on the scene."

Business recovery in this country dates from the decision of the Supreme Court invalidating the NRA, but the spirit of the NRA still lives. It lives in such legislation as the Robinson-Patman act and the Walsh-Healey act.

The spirit of business enterprise is seriously threatened by the tendency of government, moved by a mixture of political opportunism, organized group pressures and the plausible theories of some political and social theorists, steadily to usurp the field of private enterprise.

Legislative efforts in this country used to be directed towards the preservation of competition. Present day legislation seems to be directed to restraining competition and interfering with the determination of market prices.

"This is a manifestation of the present day lack for government intervention of all kinds, of a lack of faith in the ability of the private citizen to run his own business."

Blows Up Balloon In Fight for Life

Richardson died, Oct. 21 (AP)—Every 15 minutes as he lies in a hospital here, Alfred Richardson, 21, blows up a toy balloon. He does it in an effort to recover from injuries suffered in an automobile accident and from a complicated surgical operation which followed.

The exertion of inflating the balloon is to help Richardson's lungs expand, and physicians say today they believed he would recover from his devastating pneumonia.

The young man was injured critically in an automobile motor truck collision near Morris, Neb., last September 25, in which his brother, Arthur, 23, was killed.

WOMEN IN LOVE

By Mae Christie

CHAPTER I
Seeing her dilemma, he explained himself. He had an afternoon newspaper with him. He handed it to her. "Go over our advertising, particularly the three-column headings of 'Sale!' Then go to the different departments to check up if representations made are actually so in point of fact, and whether the values given are true values."

Thought Ann, considerably cheered up: "A tall order for an ignoramus!" But she was anxious to learn, and only too willing to take orders.

"Afterwards," continued the merchandise manager, "you must study the similar advertisements of our competitors, going to their stores and personally examining the goods, line by line, for instance. There were a sale in lingerie of sweaters, quality, and so on. You could drop over there, and see how the women are responding to it in comparison to our own. As for the men, not giving any inkling to the staff that you happen to be a competitor, except, you understand."

"But do my very best," Mr. Bradley said. "Ann said she was about to come away."

"It might be a good idea for you to stop into our advertising conference at 2:30 in my office. It'll help you get a grasp of the business," Paul Bradley suggested.

Gordon Gavin never took his eyes off Ann Delaford during the advertising conference on the main floor.

Paul Bradley, who had no real reason to be present, kept his eyes glued to Ann Delaford, who was sitting on Gordon Gavin's arm.

While the sales of Ann Delaford were being discussed, she was being discussed by the men.

The all started with something over and above "business."

By grasping a telegraph, the word had come around the store that a lovely young girl, on the strength of her beauty and her dress, had been engaged by Mr. Bradley, who had been completely bewitched by her, and so had Gordon Gavin, when she had picked up the telegraph at the main floor.

That she was high and too and had really set up her own apartment, that of the Gift Shop buyer, who was going to have her dress made.

Keep Wits

That she was a woman, and an intelligent, and had come here for a while, being told with Paul Bradley and Gordon Gavin, and made words to be kept.

Not only was Gordon Gavin string of the advertising, but the word had come around the store that a lovely young girl, on the strength of her beauty and her dress, had been engaged by Mr. Bradley, who had been completely bewitched by her, and so had Gordon Gavin, when she had picked up the telegraph at the main floor.

"Something new in ideas," said Claire the make-up artist, "I'm sick of seeing the same old faces. I decide to do a good job in putting them on the boards of pigs!"

Claire was making a good thing, financially, out of her own idea. She was doing a good job in putting them on the boards of pigs!

Paillette Half-Moons Shine on Black Net

"Your Figure, Madame!"

By IDA JEAN RAIN

Model figures are made, not born. The beautiful models who carry the world of fashion on their slim shoulders are, more often than not, a work of art—and hours of exercise.

By dint of daily exercise they acquire the graceful walk, superb carriage and infinite poise that mark the perfect model. Any of us who are interested in making the most of our looks can do no better than take their girls as a pattern.

At the Empire Manhattan School in New York, models in the making have the latest conventional figure exercise and acquire a walk such as you would expect of Venus should she step down from her pedestal. I watched the girls go through their paces and improved several of their best exercises to put along in 1937.

They begin their training with the correction of posture and use the following exercise in strengthening the important muscles.

Position: Lying flat on back, knees flexed, feet pointed with toes on floor.

Movement: Pulling up and in with the lower abdominal muscles, flatten the small of the back until it touches the floor, holding in 20 counts. Relax with the legs extended straight out on the floor, and repeat the exercise not more than 10 times.

Position: Standing, feet slightly apart, knees straight, arms outstretched at shoulder level.

Movement: Bending backward, touch the heels with the crown of the head, then the other hand in the back of the head, swinging freely and rhythmically. The head should be backward, not sideways. This exercise also helps to tone the abdominal muscles.

way to a round, paillette-edged neck band. The slip is not. Paillettes again edge the flare of short cape-like sleeves. It's a frock for opening nights, when among all the strident sequins and furs and perfume, you'll choose to move slowly, feeling just a little like a young and co-sagacious Juliet.

For shopping information on this dinner frock, phone Annie Brink, Fashion Editor, Liberty 4600, or write her at the Boston Evening American.

Martha Lee Discovers New Gems for the Kitchen

FROM MARTHA LEE'S WEEKEND MORNING BROADCAST OVER STATION WMXN

WE HAD so many inquiries about the thermometer used at Cooking School last week that we hunted it up for you.

It certainly is a practical answer to our need for one thermometer that can be used for fat, jelly and candy making. It stands upright in a deep or a shallow pan and sells for $1.25.

11 Per Cent Not U. S. Citizens

POLICE CENSUS BARES STORY

The Works Progress Administration payroll in Boston is flooded with aliens.

The Works Progress Administration payroll in Boston is flooded with aliens. The police census shows that 11 per cent of the workers are not U. S. citizens. This is a significant increase from the previous year.

Favor Aliens

These facts raise the question as to why the W. P. A. should be so generous to aliens. The answer is simple: the W. P. A. is a government agency and it is the duty of the government to provide work for all who are in need of it.

Non Residents

The police census also shows that a large number of the workers are non-residents of Boston. This is another indication of the large number of people who are coming to the city in search of work.

PROVIDENCE TILT CRUCIAL FOR B. C.

OFFENSE Not Yet TESTED

FIVE STRONG FOES FOLLOW

As Coach Gil Dobie nurses along his Boston College grid squad to top strength for the attack of the Providence College Friars, it becomes evident that Saturday's game at Alumni Field will go far to make or break the Eagle eleven.

From many view points this game looms as the crucial game of the entire B. C. season, coming as it does on the eve of five major battles with powerful foes.

It was not long ago when the Eagles, in their first game, were defeated by the Providence Friars, 14-0.

A group of five strong foes follow, and the Eagles will have to keep their offense in top shape to win any of these games.

Lack Polish

Although Northampton, the attack of the Eagles, and Temple, the defense, are not yet polished, they are expected to dominate the play that day.

The Eagles will present an admirable record for anything that they might desire to test.

Coach Harry Dowse, who led the Eagles in the Western Division of the B. C. conference, has a lot to say about the team.

In the Western Division, the Eagles were defeated by the Providence Friars, 14-0, and the Dartmouth team, 14-0.

THE BURGLARY

FLOYD GIBBONS, author of the "Floyd Gibbons" column, is a full-time writer in Miami, Fla. and one of the most popular authors in the country. His books, "The Night of the Hunter" and "The Night of the Hunter," are best sellers.

When a burglar breaks into a home, the first thing he usually does is to look for cash and jewelry. But in the case of a recent burglary in Miami, the burglar found something else that was even more valuable. He found a man who was not only a millionaire but also a very famous man. The man was a very famous man, and the burglar was very lucky to find him. The man was a very famous man, and the burglar was very lucky to find him.

France's New Plan

AS THE EUROPEAN nations edge closer and closer to general war they are putting out feelers as to whether by putting about $1.25 apiece on the billions they borrowed from us to help them out of their follies of 1914-18 they can mult up for a few more billions.

A recent Universal Service Paris cable said that at a meeting of the French cabinet there was "a proposal to send an extraordinary diplomatic mission to Washington to reopen the war debts question, thus paving the way for FLOATING A HUGE FRENCH LOAN IN THE UNITED STATES."

The Johnson Law, which bars debt-defaulting nations from floating loans in the United States, has caused more silent cursing in the chancelleries of the debt-welchers than any law that has gone on our statute books.

It has, in fact, been looked on by the league of borrowing bilkers as a "distinctly unfriendly act!"

IF France paid every cent she owes us and went Soviet, the American bondholders of French securities would be in the same boat with the holders of Romanoff bonds.

To loan money to ANY of the European countries at the present time, whether they pay a dollar or the whole $12,000,000,000 debt, is like trying to get a dead horse to plough.

If there is no war in Europe it will be because THIS TIME the big shots WILL HAVE TO PAY FOR IT THEMSELVES.

They just won't fight without SUCKER SAM!

The Communist Treasury

INDISPUTABLE evidence points to the fact RED activities in Madrid, which now completely dominate the so-called "Radical-Socialist" government, were financed from Moscow.

The International Correspondence, French edition of the official organ of the Moscow Comintern, of February 8, 1936, says the sum of 1,000,000 francs was transferred from Moscow to France and Belgium for Spanish Communist refugees in those countries.

THESE HAVE NOW RETURNED TO FIGHT FOR RED SPAIN.

The German Communist organ, the Rundschau, of Basle, Switzerland, asserted on December 26, 1934, that the Central Committee of International RED Relief in Moscow had levied a tax of 3,000,000 francs upon workers of the U.S.S.R. to support Spanish RED leaders in France.

THESE ALSO HAVE RETURNED TO SPAIN TO FIGHT FOR COMMUNISM.

Trabuco, a Spanish Communist publication, of January 1, 1936, published the statement that the Comintern of Moscow had sent 2,000,000 pesetas to Spain for "RED Relief."

The December 30, 1934, issue of La Industrializacion, an official Soviet organ, made the statement 1,500,000 pesetas had been sent from Moscow to Spain.

Add to these proofs the Moscow-instigated "collections" that are being taken up everywhere by Reds and extreme radicals to finance the Spanish Communists and it must be clear to the dullest mind that the threat to the democratic institutions of the world comes from SOVIET RUSSIA.

Faith Conquers Darkness

THE picture, taken a few months ago in New York, shows Miss Helen Keller, noted author and lecturer, blind from birth, and Mrs. Ann Sullivan Macy, the faithful companion who taught her to talk and was her eyes through a half-century of life.

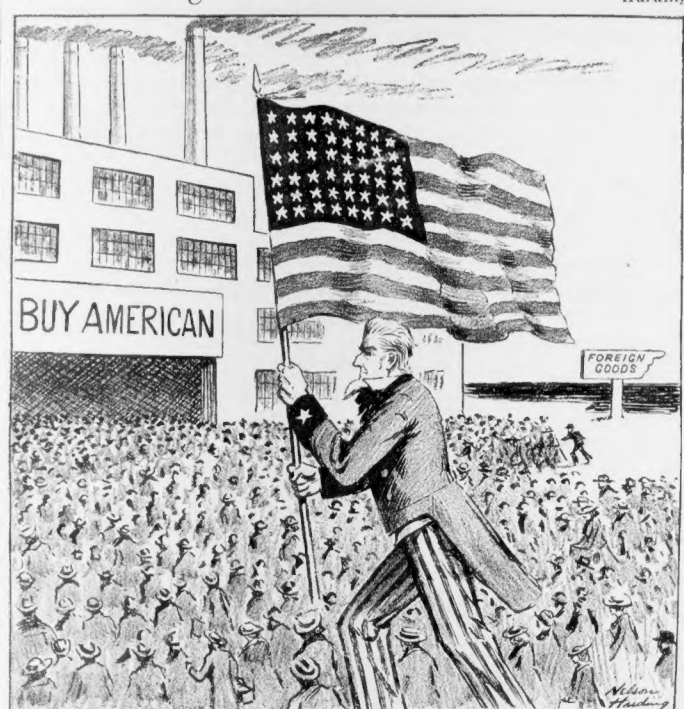

Tuesday Death took Mrs. Macy, ended that beautiful association. And Miss Keller bravely goes on alone.

"My teacher is set free at last from pain and blindness," she says. "I pray for strength to endure the silent dark until she smiles on me again."

"My teacher has gone from me a little while, but I shall feel her presence again when my eyes are blessed with light, my ears saved unto harmony and my impudged light set free."

Reading and sympathizing, one cannot but agree with Miss Keller. Faith does conquer darkness. She proves it.

New York, Oct. 21.—Mortuary records show suicide leaps go in the provincial three. Some had been in the city for a long time. Some had been in the city for a long time. Some had been in the city for a long time.

There are about 100,000 people in New York City who are not registered voters. They are not registered voters. They are not registered voters.

It was discovered one of the most responsive programs was of a tobacco company presenting the 15th issue of the week. Several programs that exploited data instead of famous players—at a comparatively small cost—were being used by the company.

In other words the radio, like the stage, may soon have a group of the once high-priced, now "AT Liberty."

That silly knock-knock jungle game is under the spotlight of the stage. It is under the spotlight of the stage. It is under the spotlight of the stage.

Those part makers who pop out of side street burrows in a cocktail glass at evening can make a follow-up quickly, no end. This evening I was the only person in the room who was not a part maker.

Of good wages and good living.
Which the foreign cheap producers
Would bring down by underselling
Goods made by their coolie labor!

Listen, World!

By Elsie Robinson

All forms of egotism—including my own—are a pain in the neck to the unfortunate bystander. But as a general rule, egotism is a pain in the neck to the unfortunate bystander.

There are 50 people in the party. All of them are looking at me. They are all looking at me. They are all looking at me.

There is just one thing that I can do. I can do it. I can do it. I can do it.

There are indeed, but each one of them is a different person. They are all different people. They are all different people.

When a woman speaks in a beautiful manner, she can always make the woman. Almost any woman.

Every girl who expects to marry, should be a good cook. But that is not the only thing that a girl should be.

Thrilling November 3rd

The Human Side of the News
By Edwin C. Hill

For that form of serious excitement, had occurred his election. The news which greeted a breakfasting crowd in New York City on Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

Charles Evans Hughes of New York has been elected President of the United States. The news which greeted a breakfasting crowd in New York City on Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

His judgment was vindicated. The night before, satisfied that he had lost, Calvin Van Houten, an Okla., then the great managing editor of the New York American, was seen to the election of Hughes. He announced the winning of Ohio and Kansas to the Democratic column, and he stated that he had definite results from a large number of his reporters.

The exception, a New York daily, the World, had declared that the result was in doubt. It was the only newspaper which had not taken any question about that, and it was the only newspaper which had not taken any question about that.

Through bargaining and bringing the result of the election to the House of Representatives, the election of Hughes was secured. The election of Hughes was secured.

It must be something of a shock to the correspondents named in a big divorce case to discover that they are "one more in a crowd."

There is just one thing that I can do. I can do it. I can do it. I can do it.

There are indeed, but each one of them is a different person. They are all different people. They are all different people.
